

SEMINAR DESCRIPTIONS

WHO IS THE KING OF OUR KINGDOM?

Speakers: Kyra Gonzalez and Alexa Glatfelter

Location: Manor Pavilion

Who is the King of our Kingdom and how do we embody that King more? Discovering how we can see, taste, smell, hear, and feel what God does in order to live fully in His image and bring all that He is to earth.

FORGIVENESS UNLOCKS THE KINGDOM

Speaker: Stephen Haverstick

Location: Athletic Field 1 (Thursday and Friday only)

How can we live up to Jesus's call to view people with grace rather than judgment? Or the seemingly impossible command to love our enemy? Forgiveness is the key. Join us as we take a look at one of Jesus's most challenging parables and seek to build the Kingdom in our daily lives by "forgiving those who have sinned against us."

CALLED TO RISE

Speaker: Megan Keul

Location: Athletic Field 2 (Thursday only); Athletic Field 1 (Saturday only)

Looking inward at what it takes to rise as Kingdom dwellers and Kingdom advancers. God is calling us to rise.... Where is He calling YOU?

THAT TIME PEOPLE WANTED TO THROW JESUS OFF A CLIFF

Speaker: Hilary Golden

Location: Athletic Field 2 (Friday and Saturday only)

In Luke 4:14-30, Jesus announces good news to the poor, but is met with opposition. We will look at Jesus' kingdom oriented message, and the response of the people who didn't understand the new world order He described. We will touch on some of our current social justice issues and work through what it means to be bearers of the good news when it is not popular or cool.

CALLING ALL TEENS: TEEN TALK

Speakers: Nate Hopkins and Sarah Ehrig

Location: Dining Hall

(Grades 6-12 only) This seminar is for teens, by teens. Come learn & unpack what it means to build God's kingdom in reality. We will be taking a closer look at what it means to build the kingdom in your personal life, your school, & with your friends. Do you want to hear awesome stories, play games, worship the Lord, & ask us questions? We know you do! Come join us

LEADING WITH YOUR FLY DOWN: The power of vulnerability and openness in leadership.

Speaker: Chris Irvin

Location: RV Park (Thursday only)

(Leaders only) Do you feel a constant pressure to know all the answers and have your stuff together? As leaders, especially of youth and young adults, we often feel the need to be calm, cool and collected in every situation, putting on a front of confidence that isn't always genuine. But what would it look like to break down some of those barriers of insecurity and begin leading alongside those in your ministry. Join us as we explore examples of kingdom building leadership and discuss the ongoing battle of finding relational balance in the areas we serve.

BE STILL

Speaker: Jake Bair and Jesse King

Location: RV Park (Friday and Saturday only)

Often we move so quickly through our day to day lives that we forget to pause and reflect on the God we live for and serve. If you can relate to this, come join us for a time to be still. Our goal is to provide a space and atmosphere for reflection through music. This will NOT be a time for simply hanging out with friends, nor will it look like a regular worship service. Rather, it will be a time for Spirit-led reflection, contemplation, and prayer.

CAUGHT IN THE MIDDLE

Speaker: Emily Bingham

Location: Craft Pavilion (Thursday and Friday only)

Have you ever felt caught in the middle? Somewhere between youth group and school, Sunday and the rest of the week, the Kingdom of God and the kingdoms of this world? Let's chat about what it looks like to live as citizens of a heavenly kingdom in the midst of our everyday, earthly lives.

WHAT KIND OF KING? WHAT KIND OF KINGDOM?

Speaker: Pastor John Overman

Location: Craft Pavilion (Wednesday only); Athletic Field 3 (Saturday only)

Explore the Gospel stories of Jesus being baptized and then tempted in the wilderness. These stories help us adhere to and follow Jesus, while also recognizing temptations that might draw us away.

LIFE AS A DISCIPLE:

IMPORTANCE OF MINISTRY THROUGH THE EYES OF THE APOSTLES

Speaker: Zach Shafer

Location: Athletic Field 3 (Friday and Saturday only)

Are you a youth sensing a call to ministry in your life? Is it on your heart to help the kingdom of God rise? This seminar is geared for those who are discerning and discovering what God may be calling them to do one day. We will discuss what it looks like to be a disciple of the Lord in the church today, and how one discovers if God is calling them to full-time ministry.

TALKING DONKEYS AND A FLOATING AX HEAD

Speaker: Abbie Long

Location: Nurse's Tent

Do you know that God wants to speak with you every single day? Have you ever struggled with hearing Him or question if it was Him? While there isn't a formula to instantly hear his voice, we all have access to hear His heart at any given time! God is still speaking today!

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT

Speaker: Charlie George

Location: Registration Tent (Thursday and Friday only)

(For Girls and Guys) Pornography is a sin that lies in darkness. It sits just under the surface of conversation so that those who struggle feel ashamed and alone. My goal is to bring the conversation to light and start tackling this sin one story at a time.
